

ILP-DC 2011 Bhangra Bash Team Participation Guidelines

1. Teams are required to report atleast 1hr prior to start of event. Teams reporting late or without all team members present could potentially be disqualified and not allowed to participate.
2. Order of teams performing is decided before-hand via ballot box and is irreversible.
3. Teams will NOT be given a second chance to perform due to any reasons.
4. Execution of any stunts is PROHIBITED. ILP will NOT be responsible for participants injuries inflicted during the performance.
5. All decisions of the judging panel are FINAL and CANNOT be changed.
6. All team members must be students of the school they are representing.
7. Each team can be comprised of members from various schools.
8. Each team will be allowed a minimum of 6 members and a maximum of 12 (including dholis, singers, or other musicians) members.
9. Each team should have a designated team representative or captain that will interact with ILP-DC Chapter and TJNamaste.
10. Unethical behavior on or off the stage of any kind will result in a deduction of points or potentially even disqualification.
11. Participating team must register for the Bhangra Bash competition by March 20 2011.
12. Participating team will register for the Bhangra Bash competition by mailing the registration form, team roster and $100 registration fee (payable to "India Literacy Project") to the address: Nandu Sawant. 2660 Quincy Adams Dr. Herndon, VA 20171.