ILP-DC is the DC chapter of India Literacy Project (ILP) a US-based non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to spreading the cause of literacy in India. For the Walk-a-thon, participants ask pledges from friends, family, co-workers, neighbors, or any one they know. This form could be used to track the sponsors. No contribution is considered small; it is the participation and spirit that matters. Participants then bring this form to the venue and spread literacy as they walk.
