ILP-DC is the DC chapter of India Literacy Project (ILP) a US-based non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to spreading the cause of literacy in India. For the Tennis Tournament Fundraiser, participants can either provide the payment themselves or ask pledges from family, friends, co-workers, or anyone. This form could be used to track the sponsors. No contribution is considered small; it is the participation and spirit that matters. Participants then bring this form to the venue and spread literacy as they play tennis.
